Name	Period
English 10 • FAHRENHEIT 451 • Part Two Graded Discussion Question	s
Consider the following questions in preparation for the graded in-class discussion over Par encouraged to write down some basic notes in response to the questions on this sheet to response to the questions.
Discussion Questions
1. How does Faber cause Guy to change?
2. What do they talk about/are the three things missing in life?
2. What do they talk about/are the three things missing in me:
3. What is the significance of Denham's Dentifrice on the subway?
4. On page 92 the women talk about children and not having any. Why don't they want chi	ildren in this society?
5. What do they discuss about voting?
y. What do they diseuss about voting.
6. What is the role of women in F451 society?

9. What symbols did you find in Part Two? 10. Why does Beatty want to burn Montag's house? 11. Write two additional questions or concepts you'd like to discuss with the class. Rules for Discussion	7. On page 102, Beatty says, "Not that we don't trust yo	u." What was he indicating after reading through Part 2?
11. Write two additional questions or concepts you'd like to discuss with the class. Rules for Discussion	8. Why is the second part titled the Sieve and the Sand?
Rules for Discussion Refer to The Text; give page numbers (especially your highlighted annotations) when needed during the discussion. A graded discussion is not a test of memory. You are not "learning a subject"; your goal is to understand the ideas, issues, and values reflected in the text, to ask valid questions, and to discuss with each other. Do Not STAY CONFUSED; ask for clarification from each other. STICK TO THE POINT currently under discussion; make notes about ideas you want to come back to. RAISE YOUR HAND and I will call on you to contribute to the discussion. TALK TO EACH OTHER, not just to me. Grading Considerations: Did the student Speak loudly and clearly? Cite reasons and evidence for their statements? Vester to find support? Stick with the subject? Talk to each other, not just to me? Ask for help to clear up confusion? Apoid bostile exchanges? Question others in a civil manner?	9. What symbols did you find in Part Two?
Rules for Discussion REFER TO THE TEXT; give page numbers (especially your highlighted annotations) when needed during the discussion. A graded discussion is not a test of memory. You are not "learning a subject"; your goal is to understand the ideas, issues, and values reflected in the text, to ask valid questions, and to discuss with each other. DO NOT STAY CONFUSED; ask for clarification from each other. STICK TO THE POINT currently under discussion; make notes about ideas you want to come back to. RAISE YOUR HAND and I will call on you to contribute to the discussion. ALIST TO EACH OTHER, not just to me. Grading Considerations: Did the student Speak loudly and clearly? Cite reasons and evidence for their statements? Use the text to find support? Listen to others respectfully? Stick with the subject? Talk to each other, not just to me? Ask for help to clear up confusion? Support each other? Avoid hostile exchanges? Question others in a civil manner?	10. Why does Beatty want to burn Montag's house?
REFER TO THE TEXT; give page numbers (especially your highlighted annotations) when needed during the discussion. A graded discussion is not a test of memory. You are not "learning a subject"; your goal is to understand the ideas, issues, and values reflected in the text, to ask valid questions, and to discuss with each other. DO NOT STAY CONFUSED; ask for clarification from each other. STICK TO THE POINT currently under discussion; make notes about ideas you want to come back to. RAISE YOUR HAND and I will call on you to contribute to the discussion. TALK TO EACH OTHER, not just to me. Speak loudly and clearly? Cite reasons and evidence for their statements? Use the text to find support? Listen to others respectfully? Stick with the subject? Talk to each other, not just to me? Ask for help to clear up confusion? Support each other? Avoid hostile exchanges? Question others in a civil manner?	11. Write two additional questions or concepts you'd like	to discuss with the class.
REFER TO THE TEXT; give page numbers (especially your highlighted annotations) when needed during the discussion. A graded discussion is not a test of memory. You are not "learning a subject"; your goal is to understand the ideas, issues, and values reflected in the text, to ask valid questions, and to discuss with each other. DO NOT STAY CONFUSED; ask for clarification from each other. STICK TO THE POINT currently under discussion; make notes about ideas you want to come back to. RAISE YOUR HAND and I will call on you to contribute to the discussion. TALK TO EACH OTHER, not just to me. Speak loudly and clearly? Cite reasons and evidence for their statements? Use the text to find support? Listen to others respectfully? Stick with the subject? Talk to each other, not just to me? Ask for help to clear up confusion? Support each other? Avoid hostile exchanges? Question others in a civil manner?
REFER TO THE TEXT; give page numbers (especially your highlighted annotations) when needed during the discussion. A graded discussion is not a test of memory. You are not "learning a subject"; your goal is to understand the ideas, issues, and values reflected in the text, to ask valid questions, and to discuss with each other. DO NOT STAY CONFUSED; ask for clarification from each other. STICK TO THE POINT currently under discussion; make notes about ideas you want to come back to. RAISE YOUR HAND and I will call on you to contribute to the discussion. TALK TO EACH OTHER, not just to me. Speak loudly and clearly? Cite reasons and evidence for their statements? Use the text to find support? Listen to others respectfully? Stick with the subject? Talk to each other, not just to me? Ask for help to clear up confusion? Support each other? Avoid hostile exchanges? Question others in a civil manner?
TALK TO EACH OTHER, not just to me. Question others in a civil manner?		Grading Considerations: Did the student
	REFER TO THE TEXT; give page numbers (especially your highlighted annotations) when needed during the discussion. A graded discussion is not a test of memory. You are not "learning a subject"; your goal is to understand the ideas, issues, and values reflected in the text, to ask valid questions, and to discuss with each other. DO NOT STAY CONFUSED; ask for clarification from each other. STICK TO THE POINT currently under discussion; make notes about ideas you want to come back to.	 Speak loudly and clearly? Cite reasons and evidence for their statements? Use the text to find support? Listen to others respectfully? Stick with the subject? Talk to each other, not just to me? Ask for help to clear up confusion?